

Contest Rules:

Please remember this is a family-friendly event and contestants must be properly attired.

No political or religious statements please.

Nothing must leave your person while you are on the catwalk. No water pistols, silly-string guns, etc.

All judging will be done at the time of the event.

Costumes must be self-contained. Large elaborate costumes must be handled by the contestant, artist and/or assistants the contestant brings to help.

Do not enter or exit the catwalk except at the designated points and as directed.

Each contestant may only enter one costume into competition.

Violations of rules may lead to disqualification
